

Mr. Istiaque Ahmad is a retired Secretary to the Government of Bangladesh. Prior to his retirement he served as Secretary to the Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change. He also worked as the Chairman of Bangladesh, Oil gas and Mineral Corporation (Petrobangla) for a stint of more than two years, the flagship organization in the country's energy sector, before assuming the secretary position. Having completed his Masters in Science (M. Sc.) degree in Geology and Mining from the University of Rajshahi, Mr. Ahmad started his professional career as an Assistant Director (Assistant Geologist) in the Geological Survey of Bangladesh (GSB) in 1984. He, then, joined Administration Cadre of the Bangladesh Civil Service in 1986. During his long career in the country's bureaucracy, he served in various capacities in field administration, Bangladesh mission abroad as well as different ministries and departments with utmost sincerity and diligence. Mr. Ahmad worked for more than 11 years in the Cabinet Division as Deputy Secretary, Joint Secretary and Additional Secretary. He travelled many countries including United Kingdom, Germany, Italy, France, the Netherlands, Malaysia, Singapore, India, Australia, Japan, USA, Canada for receiving professional training as well as attending workshops, seminars etc.