

Professor A. K. M. Monirul Islam, an experienced education administrator, has diverse experience of working in different capacities under the Ministry of Education, Bangladesh. With strong national and international connections generated by dint of his long career both as an academic and an administrator, Professor Islam stands a tall figure with his managerial scopes. He has the experience of teaching Social Welfare / Social work in different Higher Education Institutions (HEI) and colleges. Besides he has worked in the National Academy for Educational Management (NAEM) and in Bangladesh National Commission for UNESCO (BNCU). His expertise includes educational research, educational planning, educational management & leadership, pedagogy and education system reform. Professor Monirul Islam has achieved certificate in Higher Education (C.HEd.) from Beijing Normal University. He obtained M.Phil., Masters of Education (M.Ed.), Masters of Social Science (MSS) in Social Welfare degree and Bachelor's degree in Social Welfare from the University of Dhaka. He also performs several researches on educational planning & development.

Professor Islam played a significant role in Educational Administration & training as an Assistant Director (Administration) and a trainer (Assistant Director, Training) both in NAEM. He led the Administration and Coordination Wing of BNCU as Assistant Secretary BNCU & Chief Coordinator.

He also has the experience of assisting as a rapporteur of National Education Policy -2010. He is a member of the UNESCO Club Bangladesh, Bangla Academy, Asiatic Society of Bangladesh, Dhaka University Alumni Association, Social Welfare Alumni Association, Officers Club, Dhaka and many other distinguished societies and organization. He is one the authors of a research paper titled as "Poverty and Social Inequality: Bangladesh Experience" published in Springer. He also laurels as an author of the papers titled "Flow-up Study on Educational Planning and Development Training (EPD)", "A Study on the trends of using library by the teachers and students of the higher secondary level educational institution in Bangladesh" and "Ways of Encouraging Female Education in Bangladesh" published in NAEM journals. He travelled Japan, P.R.China, South Korea and India for obtaining higher education, professional development training as well as for attending workshops, seminars and conferences.